“How to Write a Scientific Review Paper”

Wednesday, 23 January 2019, at 17:00
Building CTF 01, Room 110, Panepistimioupoli Campus

This seminar is open to the public

The lecture aims to present the fundamentals on scientific writing. It provides detailed information on the structure, format and content of a journal-style scientific review paper. The use of scientific language in conveying information with precision and clarity will also be discussed. The second part aims to familiarize students with key concepts of scientific poster design.

This seminar is mandatory for all Master students enrolled in departmental Postgraduate Seminar courses as well as for Ph.D. students enrolled in departmental Postgraduate Seminar courses who have not already attended this lecture in a previous semester.
