

Would you like to become an Ambassador of the International Careers Festival?
APPLY NOW!

Giovani nel Mondo association is looking for young people to join the International Careers Festival staff, the only event in Italy dedicated to youth, employment, and internationalization which will take place in March 2019 in Rome.

WHO WE ARE: Giovani nel Mondo (GnM) is a non profit association born to give a forum to youth and their ideas. The Association pursues social and cultural goals both at national and international levels; GnM members are mainly students or recent graduates from 18 to 30 years old who ask the association for support on their path of personal and professional development. Giovani nel Mondo created the famous portal www.carriereinternazionali.com, and last year launched the third edition of the International Careers Festival: RomeMUN, Rome Business Game, Rome Press Game, International Careers Course and the International Careers Fair are the main activities of the Festival.

OPEN POSITION: Promoter/Ambassador at your university

WHEN: From September 2018 to January 2019- 4 hours per week

DEADLINE: August 10th 2018

REQUIREMENTS: being a student of an university or being a recent graduate. Communication skills, organizational skills, creativity, previous international experiences. Former participants to GnM activities will be considered as first in the selection. It is an asset to have previously participated to practical simulations or having attended international conferences or having worked with non profit associations and NGOs.

BENEFITS: Free participation in the Festival-Free accommodation and meals or reimbursement of the flight-train tickets to come to Rome-opportunity to join other International events.

HOW TO APPLY: Please write an email to k.haponava@internationalcareersfestival.org