UNIVERSITY OF CYPRUS IS A MEMBER OF AACSB INTERNATIONAL

The University of Cyprus has achieved official membership in the distinguished AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). AACSB International is a global association of leaders in education and business dedicated to supporting and advancing quality business education worldwide. Through membership, accreditation, research, thought leadership, professional development, and advocacy, AACSB partners with over 1,500 organizations, from more than 90 countries globally. Membership or participation in the Global Education Alliance does not imply accreditation.

Being a member of AACSB opens up new horizons for the University of Cyprus. The network provide opportunities for exchange of ideas, collaboration and guidance for achieving accreditation.

The Dean of the School of Economics and Management, Professor Andreas Charitou, stated that “It was with great pleasure that we have received the approval of the University of Cyprus as an official member of AACSB International. Among others, the AACSB membership will enable the School and the University overall to attain international recognition for the high level of research, teaching and learning it offers”. He also referred to the excellent work done at the Faculty, despite its small size, and he declared the high level of commitment of the academic and administrative staff to acquire the AACSB accreditation.

The Rector of the University of Cyprus, Professor Tasos Christofides, congratulated the School of Economics and Management for their continuous strive for excellence and stated that, indeed, the AACSB membership will contribute substantially to the international reach of the University of Cyprus, while validating its educational and research excellence.
