

In utraque disciplina satis institutus auctor: Mixing Prose and Verse in Late Antique Literature

Department of Classics and Philosophy, University of Cyprus

Workshop on Saturday, 22 October 2022

Venue: Room E 116, 75 Kallipoleos Ave

10:00-10.15: Welcome and Opening (Margot Neger, University of Cyprus)

10:15-11:00:

Boris Hogenmüller (University of Frankfurt)

“*Ἄρχει μὲν ἀγών / τῶν καλλίστων [...] Some remarks on the insertion of Greek poems in The Caesars of Julian the Apostate*”

11:00-11.45:

Christopher Poms (University of Graz)

“Textus fabularum occurrit – The verse fable collection of Avianus, its prose preface and their interaction”

11.45-12:15 Coffee Break

12.15-13.00:

Chiara Di Serio (University of Cyprus)

“Mythology as a device of high style in Ausonius’ prosimetric letters”

13.00-13.45

Margot Neger (University of Cyprus)

“Prose letter and verse epitaph: Sidonius Apollinaris on the violation of his grandfather’s tomb (Ep. 3.12)”

13.45-14.00: Concluding remarks

Organizer: Margot Neger (University of Cyprus)

neger.margot@ucy.ac.cy