Research projects

Current

November 2017-February 2020

“Emerging Perspectives on Urban Morphology: Researching and learning through multiple practices”, Erasmus + KA2 Strategic Partnerships for Higher Education, Project coordinator.

February 2017- present

“Public space and urban cultures: the role of urban form in segregation and everyday life”, internally funded research project. Principal investigator. New Researcher Fund: Ilaria Geddes

Completed

October 2013-2106 (2017)

“OIKOnet - A global multidisciplinary network on housing research and learning”, Erasmus Multilateral Network. Lifelong Learning Program. Partner, member of WP Housing Research and WP Pedagogy. <http://www.oikonet.org/>

September 2013-2015

“Understanding Urban Segregation through space and time: A study of the relationship between morphology, sociability and accessibility in the city of Nicosia”, internally funded research project. Principal Investigator.

February 2011-2015

“European Network of Heads of Schools of Architecture (ENHSA): Inhabiting The European Higher Architectural Education Area”. Lifelong Learning Program/Erasmus call: EAC/49/2010.

December 2013 – 2014

“The Housing Markets of Southern Europe in face of the crisis”, research workshops funded by WBG Wohnungsbau-Gesellschaft Görlitz mbH the TRAWOS Institute of University of Applied Sciences Zittau, Görlitz.Germany.

2010-2014

“Accessibility Instruments for Planning Practice in Europe”, COST TU1002. member of the Management Committee (MC).

June 2011

“Changing Landscapes - Mediterranean Sensitive Areas Design”, Erasmus Intensive Program (IP), co-ordinator: UNIRC - Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria. Participant with UCY team.

2011-present

Urban Conflict and Segregation Studies lab
Principal Investigator (PI).

2005-2008

“PROGRESSORE” (Programme for the Study of European Rural Societies), COST A35. Member of the Management Committee (MC).

2004-2006	“APPRODI: New Arrivals” . ENLARGEMENT 2004 (APESC 2004/EU-25). Cyprus project co-ordinator and communication co-ordinator.
Research Labs and Scientific Research Networks
2011- present	UCS - Urban Conflicts and Segregation Research lab. Principal Investigator and coordinator.
2015-present	UN Habitat Universities - Focal Point for Habitat University Network Initiative, http://uni.unhabitat.org/?uni-partner=university-of-cyprus
Design Based Research
November –December 2017	“Implementation of Safe, Inclusive and Accessible Public Spaces in Bab El Tebbane – Tripoli” , UN-Habitat Public Space Program in Lebanon. Participation with students in the neighborhood awareness sessions and design based research on the public space.
June 2016	“Renewing/Revitalising. Creating Liveable Cities” , Belgrade, Serbia. Participation with students. ( oikonet-belgradeworkshop.blogspot.com/ )
June 2015	“Contemporary Living Patterns: Growth/Shrinkage” , Cottbus, Germany. Participation with students. ( oikonet-cottbusworkshop.blogspot.com/ )
June 2014	“Contemporary living patterns in mass housing in Europe” , Lisbon, Portugal. Participation with students. ( oikonet-lisbonworkshop.blogspot.com/ )
January 2013	“Urban Space and Social Inclusion” , in “Milan, engine the smart city” , Eco-Rehab (ER4) international workshop, in Milan, Italy. Participation with students. ( http://www.er4.polimi.it/ER4/home.html )
Scientific Research Workshops
November 2016	“Defragmenting and Activating Public Spaces in Unstable Urban Settings” , Beirut, Lebanon. AESOP’s (Association of European Schools of Planning) Thematic Group PSUC (Public Spaces and Urban Cultures) workshop.
July 2013	“Assessing Multiple Urban Developments in Limassol: from a traffic place to a people place” . A set of activities culminating in a workshop organized in Limassol, Cyprus. (Cited in Bertolini, L. (2017) Planning the Mobile Metropolis: Transport for People, Places and the Planet , Palgrave: “Supporting accessibility planning at the urban district scale: an application in Limassol”).

Academic Teaching and Activities

University of Cyprus
Spring 2010-present

ARH 201 Architectural Design IV (5ECTS)

(<https://athome201.com/>)

12hrs (around 30 students)

The course introduces students to the concepts of “home” and “dwelling”. A specific theme relevant to these concepts is explored each year. Understanding the relationship between the spatial organization of the house and the social life of the inhabitants is one of the central challenges of this studio.

Fall 2011-present

ARH 540 Mediterranean Cities and Social Phenomena

(8ECTS) (<https://med-cities.com/>)

3hrs (around 20 students)

This graduate course focuses on the understanding of the ways in which urban social phenomena both influence and are influenced by the morphology and planning of the city in general and the Mediterranean city in particular.

Fall 2009-present

ARH 500 Research Methodologies (8 ECTS)

3hrs (around 15 students).

This graduate level course aims to take the students from their existing intuitive understanding of built form and their reliance on individual knowledge highly influenced by their personal experiences, cultural background and acquired social knowledge, towards an understanding of scientific research, so that they can become both active researchers and reflective practitioners.

Fall 2010-present	ARH 110 Architecture in Context (5 ECTS), 3 hrs (around 30 students). Freshman-level lecture course, co-taught with a team of instructors. Lectures under my responsibility fall under the general title, “Research based design – the relationship between spatial patterns and social phenomena”. My lecture topics are: a) research paradigms and architectural design, b) domestic space organization – spatial patterns of culture.
Spring 2010-2015	ARH 411 Advanced Architectural Theory (5 ECTS) 3hrs (around 30 students). Senior level undergraduate course in lecture/seminar format offering in-depth examination of theories of space and place as a human experience.
Spring 2009	ARH 401 Architectural Design VIII (10 ECTS) 12hrs (around 20 students). Senior level studio course which explored the temporal interpretations of domesticity. The students were asked to research the topic from their own point of interest, form a program and develop a design proposal.
Fall 2009	ARH 420 Portraits of Architecture (5 ECTS) 3hrs (around 20 students). Senior level undergraduate course in lecture/seminar format. The course examined the ways architecture has been described or presented in literature, art and film.
University of Nicosia (selected courses)
Spring 2007	DES 514 Contexts of Design 3 hrs (15 students) Graduate level course in lecture/seminar format offering an in-depth examination of the contexts of design – social, economic, political, environmental.
Spring 2006	DES 470 Contemporary Spatial Theories 3 hrs (15 students) Senior level undergraduate course in lecture/seminar format offering in-depth examination of theories of space and place as a human experience.
Spring 2007	ARCH 102 – Architectural Design I 9hrs (around 30 students) Freshman level studio course introducing students to the concept of dwelling.
Fall 2006, Fall 2007	ARCH 101 – Introduction to Architectural Design

Advising
PhD theses
main advisor

9 hrs (around 30 students)
Freshman level studio course introducing students to experimentation and initial explorations of built space.

“Every day Public Places in Urban Neighborhoods”

Supervision of the PhD research of Glykeria Anaxagorou.
The thesis is interested in understanding the close relationship between social, spatial and political processes and the way public spaces are provided and managed in “marginal”, often neglected areas in city neighborhoods, where the everyday life of the local people evolves.

“Public Space, social encounters and the negotiation of difference: addressing urban segregation in everyday life”.

Supervision of the PhD research of Rafaella Christodoulou.
The research objective is to explore the role that public space plays in urban segregation and people’s everyday life. The research aims to explore the potential for interaction and meetings between people from different areas, ages and social backgrounds as a means to encourage tolerance and a feeling of belonging.

“Effective Learning Environments: A Study of Secondary Schools in Cyprus”

Supervision of the PhD research of Chrystalla Psathetis.
The research aims at a nuanced understanding of learning environments by considering space not only as able of reflecting pedagogic principles but also as capable of generating pedagogical effects and addresses issues such as exclusion and inequalities in a learning environment. It proposes a framework of analysis that can enhance our current understanding of spatially configured pedagogical processes, while it proposes a framework through which effective, integrative learning environments can be decoded.

“Rebooting Architectural Practice: generating interactions through the design process”

Supervision of the PhD research of Natasa Christou.
The research objective is to build upon the already strong competences of the design process by exploring and re-evaluating the process itself in relation to the stakeholders (architect, client, collaborators, users), the context (local-global, virtual-physical) alongside all the consequential instruments that come with it (materials, technologies).

“Limassol as a Social Assemblage: A Diachronic Analysis of its Urban Form”

Supervision of the PhD research of Ilaria Geddes.
The research aimed at enhancing the knowledge of urban development theory by refining current ways of analyzing the urban form diachronically through an empirical analysis of how the urban form of Limassol evolved between 1883 and today. Methodologically, the aim was to develop a multidisciplinary approach, which encompasses analytical
