This course is a historical survey of Western drama from the Roman theatre to the nineteenth century. We will explore the aesthetic, social, and cultural aspects of theatrical performance in the context of theatre architecture, theatre audiences, and politics.

Requirements

Mid term in class exam 30% ; Final in class exam 40%;

Creative Project-- choices: film, theatre play/scene, poster or creative journal; group or individual projects (poster and creative journals due on the day of the final exam; films and theatre scenes will be presented to the class by the last week of the semester) 20%.

Participation 10%

All assignments are obligatory

Absences: More than three absences in class could affect your performance as you will be missing lectures that cannot be accessible elsewhere.

If you are facing medical or other problems that might oblige you to miss classes communicate with me as soon as possible. .

KEEP COPIES OF YOUR ASSIGNMENTS ON DISK

Each of these assignments will be stored on your computer and an extra USB or diskette, so if they are lost or misplaced you should be able to retrieve them again.

You cannot complete the course without completing all of these assignments. Being absent on the day of the mid-term or the final exam without medical justification could result in failing the course. All assignments are required.

Policy:

--Regular attendance in class and participation in discussions. More than three absences will need to be justified through medical or other proof. HABITS YOU MUST TRY TO FORGET: forgetting your books and/or course packet at home, bringing the wrong books, coming to class late. The schedule is subject to change so you need to check with your classmates if you miss a class.

HABITS YOU MUST ACQUIRE in order to succeed in this course:

Read the material in advance, keep notes, contact me or your adviser on any difficulties you may be facing in your studies, email me questions, and stay in tune with classmates who need support. Any updates on the course will be communicated to you through the email. Make sure you check your email at least twice a week.

INCOMPLETE EXAM. A new dept policy restricts the permission for incomplete exams only to those who can provide written documentation sufficient to justify the permission for an incomplete, such as a medical reason.
