SPECIAL SCIENTIST POSITION (TEACHING)

The Department of English Studies at the University of Cyprus invites applications for one (1) Special Scientist position (Teaching) in English and Anglophone Poetry for the Fall Semester 2023–2024, pending final approval and funding by the University authorities.

TEACHING REQUIREMENTS

The successful candidate will be required to teach the following course:

ENG 120 Introduction to the Study of Poetry

The successful candidate may also be required to teach an advanced elective course in anglophone literature and cultural studies for third- and fourth-year students on the BA in English Language and Literature offered by the Department. She or he will also administer and mark the final exam for the course(s) they will teach. Renewal of the Special Scientist's contract for one more semester may be possible.

EMPLOYMENT TERMS

Special Scientist (PhD holder) remuneration is 68 euro (gross) per teaching hour and paid employment is for 15 weeks. Teaching duties begin on 4 September 2023, ending on 15 December 2023. Payment is made as follows: €68 per hour x teaching hours x 15 weeks for the Fall Semester 2023–2024.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants should hold a PhD on a relevant subject.

Applicants need not be citizens of the Republic of Cyprus. Applicants should however ensure, before applying, that in case they are selected they will be residing in Cyprus on a full-time basis during the employment period; submission of application implies acceptance of this condition. Acceptance of this term must be also explicitly stated in the letter of application.

APPLICATION

Applicants should submit the following:

- I. Letter of application (in which applicants are required to clearly indicate the position for which they are applying and to explain why they believe they are suitable candidates for it)
- II. Curriculum Vitae, with full contact details
- III. Copies of degrees and transcripts (the successful candidate will be asked to submit certified copies from the Ministry of Education of Cyprus, if degrees were acquired in Cyprus, or from the respective institution abroad)

- IV. A sample course syllabus for the compulsory course they would be required to teach and a suggested course syllabus for an elective in anglophone literature and cultural studies, based on their area of expertise.

If applying for the first time to the Department, applicants must also arrange for two academic referees to send letters of recommendation directly to it (see below). The names and addresses of these referees must be submitted with the application.

In case an applicant is employed in the public or wider public sector of the Republic of Cyprus, they must obtain in advance permission to work at the University from the appropriate Department/Ministry, or wider public sector authority.

Applications and references should be sent by email to Assoc. Professor Maria Margaroni (margaroni.maria@ucy.ac.cy).

The deadline for receiving applications is 6th of June 2023, at 12 pm noon.

For more details and other information, interested individuals may contact Dr Margaroni.

At least the best three candidates that satisfy the required qualifications will be interviewed.

Candidates shall be informed of the result of their application by the relevant entity.

The University of Cyprus shall collect and process your personal data according to the provisions of the General Regulation on Personal Data 2016/679 (EU).

The University of Cyprus (UCY) is committed to promoting inclusivity, diversity, and equality, as well as the elimination of all forms of discrimination in order to provide a fair, safe, and pleasant environment for the entire university community, where students and staff members will feel supported both in their professional and personal development, within and beyond their multiple identities. To this end, UCY seeks to create the necessary conditions that will encourage and respect diversity and ensure dignity both in the workplace and society at large. Moreover, UCY has adopted specific policies to promote equal opportunities, as well as respect and understanding of diversity, while it is committed to promoting and maintaining a working, teaching, and learning environment, free from any form of discrimination, whether direct or indirect.
