

SPECIAL SCIENTIST POSITIONS IN TRANSLATION

The Department of English Studies at the University of Cyprus invites applications for up to two (2) Special Scientist positions in Translation for the Fall Semester 2023/24, pending final approval and funding by the University authorities.

TEACHING REQUIREMENTS

The successful candidate(s) will be required to teach:

- Two (2) elective courses in Translation Studies (addressed to 3rd & 4th year students), preferably in the areas of Translation Tools and of Specialized Translation (LSP-Translation). Teaching duties also include the administration and marking of final exams.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates applying to teach elective courses must hold a PhD in a relevant field. All applicants must have excellent command of both English and Greek. Interested applicants should state indicative titles for the elective course(s) they would be willing to teach and demonstrate their suitability for each. Applicants do not necessarily need to be citizens of the Republic of Cyprus. Experience in teaching translation courses (both theoretical and practical) will be an asset.

EMPLOYMENT

Each elective course is taught for 3 hours weekly. Remuneration is 68 Euro (gross) per teaching hour for PhD holders. Teaching duties start on 4 September 2023, ending on 15 December 2023. The paid employment is for 15 weeks throughout the Fall semester 2023/24. Payment for each course is made as follows: €68 per hour X teaching hours X 15 weeks.

APPLICATION

Applicants must submit:

- A signed letter of application, where they state a) their interest for the position, b) the number of courses they intend to offer (1 or 2), and c) indicative titles and short description(s) (max. 200 words) for the elective course(s) they intend to offer.
- A full Curriculum Vitae, with full contact details.

Applications must be sent only in electronic form (and only as pdf attachments) to Assoc. Prof. George Floros, Coordinator of the Translation Studies Section of the Department, to the following email address: floros.george@ucy.ac.cy Successful candidates will be asked to submit certified copies from the Ministry of Education of Cyprus (if degrees were acquired in Cyprus) or from the respective institution abroad.

In case an applicant is employed in the public or wider public sector of the Republic of Cyprus, s/he must obtain permission to work at the University from the appropriate Department/Ministry, or wider public sector authority.

The deadline for receiving applications is Monday, 12 June 2023, 20.00 pm. Incomplete applications, applications in the wrong format, or applications that arrive after the deadline will not be considered.

For more details and other information, interested individuals may contact Dr. George Floros by email: floros.george@ucy.ac.cy or telephone: +357 2289 2124

At least the best three candidates that satisfy the required qualifications, will be interviewed.

Candidates shall be informed of the result of their application by the relevant entity.

The University of Cyprus shall collect and process your personal data according to the provisions of the General Regulation on Personal Data 2016/679 (EU).

The University of Cyprus (UCY) is committed to promoting inclusivity, diversity, and equality, as well as the elimination of all forms of discrimination in order to provide a fair, safe, and pleasant environment for the entire university community, where students and staff members will feel supported both in their professional and personal development, within and beyond their multiple identities. To this end, UCY seeks to create the necessary conditions that will encourage and respect diversity and ensure dignity both in the workplace and society at large. Moreover, UCY has adopted specific policies to promote equal opportunities, as well as respect and understanding of diversity, while it is committed to promoting and maintaining a working, teaching, and learning environment, free from any form of discrimination, whether direct or indirect.
