

HFF Scholarship (Academic Year 2020-2021)

Call for Applications

The call is addressed to all current MA students of the Department of History and Archaeology.

The HFF scholarship will be awarded in three stages, as described in the Programme's Webpage. This is the call for the first stage. The application should be written in English and include the following:

1. A transcript of the courses attended during the first semester. An average grade of 7,5/10 should be considered as a minimum prerequisite for a successful application.
2. A research statement (up to 300 words), in which the candidate must demonstrate a genuine interest in maritime archaeology and present one or more potential research ideas for his/her Master's thesis. It is understood that these ideas are indicative of the candidate's interests and are subject to changes during the course of the second semester.

Applications should be sent by email to Stella Demesticha (demesticha@ucy.ac.cy) no later than 2 January 2020.
