

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Archaeological Research Unit (ARU) of the University of Cyprus (UCY) is pleased to announce the 1st Graduate Forum for Mediterranean Archaeology - FoMArc, on December 9th-10th, 2022. This hybrid event will be held at the premises of the ARU in Nicosia, Cyprus.

Applicants for an oral presentation are called to submit an abstract of 200-300 words in English and a short CV (max. 2 pages) by Sunday, September 25th, 2022.

FoMArc, as a student initiative, aims to serve as an occasion where UCY's Archaeology postgraduate students (MA students and PhD candidates at any stage), who engage in research in different archaeological fields, can share their research with their peers from UCY and other institutions focusing on the Mediterranean region.

FoMArc welcomes archaeological graduate research in the Mediterranean from prehistory to the recent past, coming from all disciplines of Archaeology such as:

- Field Archaeology
- Landscape Archaeology
- Archaeological Sciences
- Archaeological Theory
- Ethnoarchaeology
- Public/ Community Archaeology
- Cultural Heritage
- Material Culture Studies
- Experimental Archaeology
- Maritime Archaeology
- Contemporary Archaeology
- Digital Archaeology
- History of Archaeology
- Museum Studies
