POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMME PLACES FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023

The University of Cyprus announces that it will be accepting applications for the following postgraduate programmes beginning in September 2022, by Thursday 31st of March 2022 until 12 noon.

1. DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE

Thirty (30) places for the postgraduate programme leading to a Master's or a PhD degree are distributed as follows:

- 25 places at the Master's level in Finance
- 5 places at the PhD level in Finance

For further information, please contact the Department's Secretary:

Tel: 22 893641, 22 893605, Fax: 22 895475

2. DEPARTMENT OF ARCHITECTURE

Twenty five (25) places for the postgraduate programmes leading to a Master (M.Sc & M.Eng) and a PhD degree are distributed as follows:

- Ten (10) places at the PhD level for the postgraduate programme in Architecture*

The specializations of the programme are in the following areas:

- Architectural History and Theory
 - Architectural Design and Theory
 - Digital Communication Media
 - Architectural Technology
 - Urban Design
 - Energy and Environmental Design
- Ten (10) places for the Joint Postgraduate Programme of the Faculty of Engineering at Master (M.Sc & M.Eng.) level in “Energy Technologies and Sustainable Design”.
 - Five (5) places for the Interdepartmental MSc postgraduate programme in “Conservation and Restoration of Historic Buildings and Sites”. **

*The candidates for the PhD programme should be graduates of a Diploma in Architecture (5 years degree) or a Master (M.A. or M.Sc.) in a domain of Philosophy, Social Science, Fine Arts, Applied Arts, Civil Engineering, Environmental Engineering, Electrical and Computer Engineering, Computer Science, Economics and Management.

Candidates for the master programmes must hold a university degree in a relevant science or engineering from the University of Cyprus or other accredited university in Cyprus or abroad.

Applications are evaluated by the Committee of the Postgraduate Program, which proposes recommendations to the Councils of the respective departments, which are responsible for the final approval of students admitted.

For further information, please contact the Secretary of the Department:

Tel: 22 892980, Fax: 22 895056, e-mail: Architecture@ucy.ac.cy, Departments Website: www.ucy.ac.cy/arch/en/

3. DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Thirty (30) positions are available for the postgraduate programme which leads to obtaining a Master's or a Ph.D. degree as follows:

- 20 positions at the Master's level
- 10 positions at the Ph.D.* level

The postgraduate programmes of the Department of Biological Sciences are offered only in the English language.

Master Programmes (M.Sc.):

- Master's level in Molecular Biology and Biomedicine
- Master's level in Biomedical Sciences
- Master's level in Biodiversity and Ecology

Ph.D.* Programmes:

- Ph.D.* level in Biomedical Sciences
- Ph.D.* level in Biodiversity and Ecology

M.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees in Biomedical Sciences, as well as the Ph.D. in Biodiversity and Ecology encompass classroom training and a strong laboratory-based research component. In contrast, the M.Sc. in Molecular Biology and Biomedicine does not involve laboratory-based research. The M.Sc. in Biodiversity and Ecology offers a research-based or a literature-based thesis. Applicants who join this programme will be offered one of these two options upon acceptance to the programme.

Students who apply for a laboratory-based research degree are strongly encouraged to contact departmental faculty members prior to their application process, in order to discuss the possibility of securing a laboratory position for thesis research and to be able to better select which laboratory best fits their interests. Upon acceptance to the laboratory-based research degrees, all students should have already identified a faculty member that would be prepared to supervise them for the laboratory component of their research work.

Candidates who meet the necessary qualifications will be called for an interview.

For further information please contact the Department's Secretary:

Ms. Anna Christou

Tel.: +357 22 892894, Email annac@ucy.ac.cy

Further information on the Department's research activities can be obtained at the Department's website <http://www.ucy.ac.cy/biol/en/>

4. DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Thirty six (36) places are available in the postgraduate programmes which leads to obtaining a Master's or a PhD degree. The places are distributed as follows:

(a) Six (6) places at the PhD level for the postgraduate programme in Business Administration which are distributed as follows:

- 3 positions in the PhD programme in Business Administration (in Greek)
- 3 positions in the PhD programme in Business Administration (in English)

Applications from candidates interested in the following fields of study will be considered:

- Management
- Marketing

 - A timetable for completing the PhD
2. Proof of very good knowledge of the English language (test results and/or certificates obtained). This is not necessary for applicants who received their degrees for programmes taught in English.
3. Three (3) reference letters from University professors familiar with the candidate and his/her academic performance.

Note: It is recommended that before candidates apply for the programme, they explore the research interests of the resident faculty along with their own and possible communicate with them for a preliminary discussion. For more information please visit our web page: www.ucy.ac.cy/bpa

(b) Thirty (30) places for the Master's degree program in Human Resource Management (HRM).

An analysis of the world's most admired companies shows that the most important success factor and at the same time one of the few ways that Organizations can gain long-term, sustainable competitive advantage, is the effective acquisition and management of their people. Therefore, the Department of Business and Public Administration of the University of Cyprus provides an innovative Master's Program in Human Resource Management (MSc in HRM). The MSc in HRM offers in-depth knowledge and skills on how to achieve such an advantage through people in a variety of organizational settings and is suitable for both graduates of HR related bachelor studies as well as graduates from other fields.

The Postgraduate Program in Human Resource Management offers students the opportunity to learn from leading HRM and organizational experts within Europe and beyond and to apply their knowledge in real-world settings. Furthermore, it provides them with knowledge in practical aspects of HR through various workshops that will enhance their understanding from an HR practitioner perspective. In addition, it provides valuable knowledge and skills to help advance students' career as well as access to a strong human resource management network in Cyprus and abroad. Finally, it enables students to strengthen their analytical, team and communication skills and increase their understanding on business ethics and social responsibility.

Potential candidates for the Doctoral level graduate program must hold a master's degree in Modern Greek Studies or a related academic field, from an accredited university in Cyprus or abroad, and with a grade "Excellent" or "Very Good." In addition to Modern Greek, they should have very good knowledge of at least one foreign language. For more information on the admission criteria and application instructions please consult the relevant section below.

Candidates for the Doctoral level graduate program are advised to consult the Program's website and study the faculty's academic profiles.

<https://www.ucy.ac.cy/bmg/el/staff/academic>

Candidates are encouraged to communicate with a faculty member who could potentially serve as their dissertation advisor, according to each student's research interests.

Admission Criteria and Instructions for submitting an application

Applications to all Graduate Programs in the Department, must be submitted electronically, through the Graduate School's Electronic Application System at the University of Cyprus which can be found here:

https://applications.ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl/MNG_USER_en.login_frm

Along with their application, candidates must submit the following:

1. An updated and complete Curriculum Vitae
2. Certified copies of their degrees and their grade transcripts. More specifically, applications for the Master's Program must include a certified copy of the candidate's Bachelor's degree—or an official verification that confirms that the candidate will have graduated before beginning their studies in the Program—and a certified copy of their grade transcripts (BA). Applications for the Doctoral Program must additionally include a certified copy of the candidate's Master's degree and a certified copy of their Master's grade transcripts.
3. Statement of Interests (500 words or two-pages), which outlines the reasons why the candidate wishes to apply to the graduate program and describes his/her aim and future plans.
4. Preliminary Research Proposal (only for Doctoral applications, around 1,500 words).
5. Essay sample. More specifically, in the case of candidates for the Master's Program, one seminar paper and, in the case of candidates for the Doctoral Program, a copy of their Master's thesis (or a published article). If the Master's Program they graduated from did not require the submission of a thesis, candidates can alternatively submit two seminar papers or a published article.
6. Two recommendation letters for candidates applying to the Master's Program / Three recommendation letters for candidates applying to the Doctoral Program. Candidates must submit the names and addresses of referees directly through the Electronic Application System. Please note that only one of the referees can be a faculty member in the Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies at the University of Cyprus
7. Language Certificate that confirms the knowledge of the additional foreign language stated by candidates in their application. Graduates who hold degrees from Universities where the language of instruction is not Greek, are not required to submit a Language Certificate.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR THE PhD PROGRAMME:

The KIOS Research and Innovation Center of Excellence (CoE) calls for applications for five (5) full-time PhD scholarships. These scholarships are addressed only to new applicants for admission in September 2022.

The successful applicants will be enrolled in either the Electrical Engineering or the Computer Engineering PhD programme of the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering and they will conduct their research at the facilities of the KIOS CoE in one or more thematic areas of the Center.

Scholarship Terms:

The scholarship will be for one year and may be renewed annually, based on performance, for 3-5 years. It includes the University tuition fees and a gross monthly salary starting at €1250. The 13th salary bonus is incorporated in the monthly salary. Maternity leave will be granted based on Social Insurance Laws from 1980 until 2012.

For additional information please visit <http://www.kios.ucy.ac.cy/index.php/employment-opportunities.html>

SCHOLARSHIP FOR THE MSc PROGRAMME in INTELLIGENT CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE SYSTEMS:

The KIOS Research and Innovation Center of Excellence (CoE) calls for applications for ten (10) scholarships for the MSc programme in Intelligent Critical Infrastructure Systems offered by the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering. These scholarships are addressed only to new applicants for admission in September 2022.

Each scholarship will be for one year and may be renewed annually, based on performance. The scholarship funds 50% of the University tuition fees for the MSc programme.

For additional information please contact: tel. 22 893460, e-mail: mccis@ucy.ac.cy.

15. DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STUDIES

Fourteen (14) places are available for postgraduate programmes of the Department of English Studies which lead to obtaining MA and PhD degrees. The places are distributed as follows:

- MA in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL): Ten (10) places

Candidates for the MA Programme must hold a BA degree in a relevant field from a recognized university in Cyprus or abroad. They are also expected to have a high level of competence in spoken and written English. For further information on the admission requirements and on the application submission guidelines, see below.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to contact the programme co-ordinator, Prof. Phoevos Panagiotidis (phoevos@ucy.ac.cy).

- PhD in Linguistics: Four (4) places

The positions for the PhD in Linguistics are announced for the fields of Theoretical Linguistics, Applied Linguistics, and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) and, more specifically, for the following research areas:

- First and second language acquisition
- Bilingualism, multilingualism, heritage language
- The syntax and morphology of English
- Comparative grammar, grammatical theory (syntax and morphology)
- Sociolinguistics, family language policy
- Methodology in TESOL, teaching and education

Applicants are strongly encouraged to contact the programme co-ordinator, Prof. Kleanthes K. Grohmann (kleanthi@ucy.ac.cy).

Admission Requirements and Application Submission Guidelines

Applicants for admission to the MA programme must hold, as already mentioned above, a BA degree in a relevant field from a recognized university in Cyprus or abroad.

Applicants for admission to the PhD programmes of the Department are expected to hold an MA in a relevant field of study from a recognized university in Cyprus or abroad.

Further, all applicants are required to be proficient in the English language (for further details, see below).

All applicants (both for the MA and for the PhD programmes) are required to submit their applications electronically, through the Online Application System of the Graduate School of the University of Cyprus that may be found in the following link:

http://applications.ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl/MNG_USER_en.login_frm

Along with their electronic application form, applicants are required to submit the following:

- 1) A full CV in English.
- 2) Certified copies of degrees and academic transcripts as appropriate. I.e. for applicants for the MA, a certified copy of their BA degree – or an official document certifying that the student will have graduated before the start date of the MA programme for which s/he is applying – plus a certified copy of the BA degree transcript; in addition to these, applicants for the PhD programmes are required to submit a certified copy of their MA degree.
- 3) A Personal Objectives Essay (applies to all candidates): A brief statement of interest (500 words up to 2 pages), which describes the reasons why the applicant wants to join the particular postgraduate programme, his/her interests and plans for the future.
- 4) A Preliminary Research Proposal (for PhD applicants only): A preliminary research proposal (of approximately 1,500 words) that describes the applicant's proposed research topic.
- 5) Writing samples in English (which, in the case of PhD applications, must include a copy of the applicant's MA thesis).
- 6) Letters of recommendation: Applicants will be required to state the names and addresses of academics who will be called to submit their letters of recommendation directly to the University of Cyprus via the online system. At least two letters of recommendation are required for applications to the MA programme, while three are required for applications to the PhD programmes.

- 7) Certificate of English language proficiency. More specifically, applicants are required to demonstrate their proficiency in English by submitting an IELTS exam score of at least 6,5, or its equivalent on the basis of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Applicants with degrees from English-speaking university programmes are exempt from this requirement.

Please note that applications and all other documents must be submitted in English.

Also, please note that the candidates may also be required to participate in an interview in order to assess their suitability for the programme.

18. DEPARTMENT OF LAW

Forty (40) places for the postgraduate programmes of the Department of Law leading to a PhD or an LLM degree as follows:

(a) Seven (7) places for the postgraduate programme leading to a PhD degree are distributed as follows:

- One (1) under the supervision of Professor Nikitas Hatzimihail
- One (1) under the supervision of Professor Tatiana-Eleni Synodinou
- One (1) under the supervision of Associate Professor Constantinos Kombos
- One (1) under the supervision of Assistant Professor Thomas Papadopoulos
- One (1) under the supervision of Assistant Professor Costas Paraskeva
- One (1) under the supervision of Lecturer Ioanna Hadjiyianni
- One (1) under the supervision of Lecturer Konstantinos Tsinas.

The first stage in the application process: Applicants are strongly encouraged to check the research interests and expertise of the academic staff of the Department of Law and must get in touch with potential Research Supervisors before submitting their application. Written endorsement by a supervisor at this preliminary stage is required for the progression of the application to the next stage. It is noted that endorsement does not equal success for the application but is rather a precondition for its progression to the next stage of assessment.

Further information about the research profile and contact information of potential supervisors is available on the Department's website at: <https://newdev.ucy.ac.cy/law/people/expertise/>

The second stage in the application process: The applicant complies with all the requirements set in the online application system of the University of Cyprus.

Applications can be submitted electronically using the online application system http://ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl_en by Thursday, 31st March 2022, until 12 noon. Applications submitted in hard copy will not be accepted.

The following should be included in the online application:

1. Curriculum vitae.
2. Certified copies of University Degrees (undergraduate and postgraduate levels) or a Certificate of Graduation. (In case of admission to the programme, certified copies of diplomas must be submitted at the latest when accepting the post).
3. Academic Transcript (with a detailed record of grades) of the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Degrees.
4. Preliminary (non-binding) research proposal of up to 2000 words in Greek or English, identifying the proposed supervisor and briefly describing the proposed subject, the proposed research methodology and the basic bibliography.
5. At least one and no more than three written samples of academic writing.
6. Evidence of excellent knowledge of the English language and any knowledge of other languages.
7. The names and email addresses of two (2) academic referees. The academic referees will receive a relevant email requesting submission of the reference letter through the online application system. The Department may request additional confidential information from the referees.

When submitting the application, the academic advisor that has previously endorsed the specific application must be named in the accompanying proposal. The final decision for the admission to the PhD Programme in Law will be taken by the Department's Committee of Postgraduate Studies, upon a favourable recommendation of the nominated Research Supervisor and subject to: (a) restrictions in available positions per supervisor; (b) the fit of the proposal with the research interests and current priorities of the supervisor; (c) the assessment of the qualifications of applicants vis-à-vis the admission criteria. The Department's Committee of Postgraduate Studies reserves the right to invite applicants to an interview or/and a written examination.

The candidates for the PhD Programme in Law must be holders of an undergraduate and postgraduate degree in Law by a recognised University.

It is noted that the excellent knowledge of the English language is an additional mandatory admission requirement. Very good knowledge of a second or third European language may be taken into account. The language of instruction is Greek.

More information on the PhD Programme in Law can be found here.

For information regarding the fees for each Postgraduate programme, please consult the relevant website of the School of Postgraduate Studies.

Scholarships: Applicants wishing to find out information on the Evagoras Scholarships that may be made available by the University of Cyprus should visit the website of the School of Postgraduate Studies. Any additional criteria for the Evagoras Scholarship set by the Department of Law will be made available on the Website of the Department of Law under Announcements and Events.

General information: For further information, please contact the Department's Secretary, Monday to Friday, from 8:00-14:00 - Telephone Number: 22892920.

(b) Thirty three (33) places for the postgraduate programme leading to a Master of Laws (LLM).

The duration of studies is 3 academic semesters. The programme is completed in two stages. During the first two semesters students attend four modules (15 ECTS each), while the third semester is devoted to the writing of a Master thesis (30 ECTS).

All students are required to take the core module 'Fundamental Principles of EU Law'. In addition, students are requested to choose one of the three streams of the programme (Stream A. «Criminal Justice and Human Rights», Stream B. «European Commercial Law», Stream C. «European Public Law»). This means that they have to take three modules of their chosen stream and write a Master thesis on one of the three modules of that stream. This will lead to specialization of the LLM degree they will obtain. The language of instruction is Greek. It is imperative to note that students must specify in their application which stream they will follow.

Admission criteria:

- Candidates for the LLM programme must hold a Law degree from a recognized University.
- Graduates of the Law Department of the University of Cyprus must have a GPA of at least 7.0/10, graduates of Greek Universities must have a GPA of at least 6.5/10, and graduates of UK Universities at least second-class honors (at least 2.2 classification). Similar GPA is required for graduates of other Universities (for example, at least 3.3 on a 4.0 scale). Exceptionally, by decision of the Departmental Board, graduates with a lower GPA and remarkable professional performance may be admitted at a percentage not exceeding 10 per cent of selected candidates.

- Very good command of English is necessary for the successful completion of the programme. Knowledge of a second or third European language is taken into consideration.
- Candidates for the LLM programme must submit a sample of academic legal writing in Greek or English (such as an essay in the context of previous studies, a publication in a scientific or student review, or an analysis of a legal issue chosen by the candidate). The written sample should be at least 1500 words, including footnotes. The written sample will be taken into account for assessing the suitability of the candidate for the LLM programme.

Applications can be submitted electronically using the online application system http://ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl_en by Thursday, 31st March 2022, until 12 noon.

Further information is available at the Department's website <https://newdev.ucy.ac.cy/law/>, under Programmes of Study. The Department will post an announcement on the details of the application procedure and the necessary documents.

The final decision for the admission to the programme is taken by the Committee of Postgraduate Studies of the Department. It is possible to invite candidates for an interview, even if they meet all admission criteria.

Scholarships:

Applicants wishing to find out information on the Praxandros Scholarships that may be made available by the University of Cyprus should visit the website of the School of Postgraduate Studies. Any additional criteria for the Praxandros Scholarship set by the Department of Law (provided that it is made available by the University) as well as information on the Scholarship in memory of Alecos Markides will be available on the Website of the Department of Law under Announcements and Events.

Further information is available at the Department's website <https://newdev.ucy.ac.cy/law/>, under Programmes of Study. For additional issues you may call the Secretariat of the Department of Law, Monday to Friday, 08:00 am to 02:00 pm, phone number (+357) 22892920.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL PROGRAMME IN DATA SCIENCE

Thirty (30) places for the Interdepartmental MSc postgraduate programme in “Data Science” of the Faculties of “Pure and Applied Sciences” and “Economics and Management”, with three specialization tracks: Computer Science, Statistics, and Business Analytics.

The goal of the MSc in Data Science Programme is to provide in-depth understanding of data science and business analytics, and to help students become scientists and/or executives capable of supporting businesses, organizations, and research institutions with their data science needs.

More information about the programme, including the detailed curriculum are available at <https://datascience.cy>.

The programme is offered by the departments of 1) Computer Science, 2) Mathematics and Statistics and 3) Business and Public Administration in English. The programme’s duration is 1.5 years (90 ECTS).

The minimum qualifications required in order to apply, are:

- A recognized University Degree in a related field (Statistics, Computer Science, Mathematics, Engineering, Economics, Business, Physics) from an accredited Institution with a GPA of at least 6.5/10. If the degree is not yet available during the application process, the student must submit it before the start of classes in September.
- Proof of very good knowledge of the English language (test results and/or certificates obtained; the certificates that demonstrate proficiency in English can be found at the following Web site: <https://www.ucy.ac.cy/graduateschool/en/admissions/admission-requirements>). This is not necessary for applicants who received their degrees for programmes taught in English.

Additional academic criteria required in order to apply, are:

- Successful completion of courses in Probability, Statistics or Econometrics and fundamental Mathematics (e.g., basic calculus, linear algebra, etc).
- Successful completion of courses in Computer Science (e.g. programming principles in Python, R, etc).

Applications are evaluated by the Committee of the Postgraduate Programme, which proposes recommendations to the Councils of the respective departments, which are responsible for the final approval of students admitted. Candidates are ranked according to the following scale: (1): not acceptable, (2): acceptable under certain conditions (conditional offer), (3): acceptable. Apply Applications can be submitted electronically using the online application system http://ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl_en by Monday, 9th May 2022 until 12 noon.

Fifty six (56) places are available for the postgraduate programme which leads to obtaining a Master's or a PhD degree. The places are distributed as follows:

- (a) Thirty six (36) places for the Postgraduate Programme in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering:
- Eight (8) places at a MSc level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering
 - Eight (8) places at a PhD level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering
 - Twenty (20) places at MEng level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering

Research Areas

- Biomedical Engineering
- Computational Mechanics of Solid and Fluids
- Design, Manufacturing, Automation and Robotics
- Energy Systems
- Mechanical Systems Modelling and Controls
- Micro- and Nano-Technology

- (b) Ten (10) places for the postgraduate Programme in Materials Science and Technology
- Five (5) places at a MSc in Advanced Materials and Nanotechnology
 - Five (5) places at a PhD level in Advanced Materials and Nanotechnology

- (c) Ten (10) places for the Joint Postgraduate Programme of the Faculty of Engineering at Master (M.Eng, MSc) level in “Energy Technologies and Sustainable Design” which are distributed as follows:
- Ten (10) places at the Master’s level

An one-year scholarships (3500 Euros) will be offered to the best full-time candidate admitted in the postgraduate Ph.D. programme based on academic merit (depending on availability of funds).
