Dear Students,

Registrations in courses for the Spring semester 2022/23 will take place on 11 – 12 January 2023. All Master and PhD students, existing and new, should be registered in courses online via BannerWeb.

Useful information about the registrations can be found to the following link Registrations for the Spring Semester 2022/2023

All postgraduate students (except for specific cases specified below), newcomers and existing Master level* and PhD students, will have to pay the tuition fees of the Spring semester 2022/2023 and their outstanding unpaid tuition fees until 9 January 2023 to be able to register in the courses of the Spring Semester 2022/2023.

Students will not be allowed to register in courses if they have not fully paid the outstanding tuition fees of the Spring semester 2022/2023 and any other unpaid tuition fees.

Payment of tuition fees is made online by selecting the option Electronic Payments (JCC SMART) option.

It is clarified that:

1. new students of the Spring Semester 2022/2023, starting their studies in January 2023, will also have to pay the first instalment of the semester tuition, in addition to the payment of the advance of tuition.

2. for the students of the self-funded MBA program, other arrangements apply for which students will be informed.

3. the electronic payment system also outlines the previous outstanding tuition fees for students. Students are able to proceed with their settlement.

4. existing PhD students who have received a tuition scholarship, will not pay the tuition fee of the Spring Semester 2022/2023.

5. for Lectures Schedule (class topic, timetable, code-numbers for classes, teaching staff, classrooms etc.), please see here.
In accordance with the Postgraduate Studies Rules:

1. The University of Cyprus may cancel the registration of students in courses when the student has not paid the tuition fees required before the registration in courses. The University of Cyprus may also do not allow the registration in courses if there are other outstanding fees.

2. The advance payment of tuition fees is not refundable in case the student leaves the University of Cyprus.

3. To a student who interrupts his/her studies and leaves the University of Cyprus until the 4th week from the beginning of the courses, the amount of tuition fees he/she has already paid before the registration in courses is refunded. The advance payment of tuition fees is non-refundable.

4. For a late student registration in a course, a fine of €50 per course is imposed which is deposited in favor of the Student Welfare Association.
