

Payment of Tuition fees

All postgraduate students (except for the specific cases specified below), newcomers and existing Master level* and PhD students, will have to pay the tuition of the Spring Semester 2023/2024 until 12nd January 2024, through Electronic Payments (JCC SMART option), in order to be able to register in the courses of the Spring Semester 2023/2024.

Students will not be allowed to register in courses if they have not fully paid the outstanding tuition fees of the Spring Semester 2023/2024 as well as all tuition instalments from previous semesters.

Payment of tuition fees is made online by selecting the option Electronic Payments \(JCC SMART\) option.

It is clarified that:

1. all students will be able to register in the courses after THEY PAY the tuition of the Spring Semester 2023/2024.
2. new students of the Spring Semester 2023/2024, starting their studies in January 2024, will also have to pay the first instalment of the semester tuition, in addition to the payment of the advance of tuition until the 12nd of January 2024.
3. * for the students of the self-funded program MBA, other arrangements apply for which the students have been informed.
4. the electronic payment system also outlines the previous outstanding tuition fees and the students are able to proceed with their settlement electronically.

In accordance with the Postgraduate Studies Rules:

1. the University of Cyprus may cancel the registration of students in courses when the student has not paid the tuition fees required before the registration in courses. The University of Cyprus may also do not allow the registration in courses if there are other outstanding fees.
2. the advance payment of tuition fees is not refundable in case the student leaves the University of Cyprus.

3. to a student who interrupts his/her studies and leaves the University of Cyprus until the 4th week from the beginning of the courses, the amount of tuition fees he/she has already paid before the registration in courses is refunded. The advance payment of tuition fees is non-refundable.
4. for a late student registration in a course, a fine of €50 per course is imposed which is deposited in favor of the Student Welfare Association.
