Applications can be submitted electronically using the online application system http://ucy.ac.cy/postgraduate_appl_en -

The language of instruction for the above postgraduate programmes is Greek, except otherwise stated at http://www.ucy.ac.cy/graduateschool/en/postgraduate-studies/postgraduate-programmes-of-study.

All the offered places for the Faculties/Departments of the University of Cyprus are presented in a table (Appendix A). For more information on postgraduate study programmes please visit the website of the Graduate School at https://www.ucy.ac.cy/graduateschool/?lang=en

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR ALL POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

Required Supporting Certificates/Documents:

The online applications should include the following:

- 1. Curriculum Vitae.
- 2. Copies of University Degrees or a certificate of expected graduation in the month preceding enrolment in the postgraduate programme. (In case of admission to a programme, certified photocopies of degrees must be submitted at the University no later than the acceptance date of the place).
- 3. University Transcripts as appropriate.
- 4. A short statement (max. two pages) of the student's research goals and interests.
- 5. Letters of recommendation.

The names and addresses of at least two (2) referees (University Professors) familiar with the candidate and his/her academic performance. Reference letters are submitted electronically directly by the University Professors using the online application system. (Some departments require three

- (3) reference letters to be submitted with the application, so before submitting your application, please visit the web page of the department to verify the number of reference letters required).
- 6. Copy of a certificate of English language proficiency for enrollment in English-speaking postgraduate programmes, as presented below:

In accordance with the Cyprus Agency of Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Higher Education (CYQAA), for admission to programmes of study taught in the English language at postgraduate levels at universities, candidate students should provide a certificate of their knowledge of English.

For programmes of study at the postgraduate level candidate students are required to have certification for "Very Good Knowledge" of English at level B2-C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) corresponds to the following specific reference frameworks for international examinations, according to the official pages of the organizations offering these examinations. Indicatively, a score of 5.5 – 6.5 corresponds to knowledge of level B2 (Lower), while score 8.5-9 is level C2 (Proficiency).

Please note that some scores only remain valid for two years. If you apply using a certificate gained over two years ago, you will need to retake the test.

Option for candidates coming from Third Countries:

According to the 91.387/2021 decision of the Cabinet of the Republic of Cyprus, which is valid since 01.12.2022, there is an extra possibility for candidates coming from Third Countries and want to apply for a place in Universities and Colleges of the Republic. Namely, they are able from now to apply for entrance permit in the country, if they succeed in the Password Test Examination (Password Skills Test Plus edition).

Please, note that for their acceptance to a Postgraduate Programme, candidates must have a general grade of at least 5.5 on the particular examination.

For Doctoral Applications: A preliminary research proposal for a PhD place (if this is stated in the departments regulations).

Admitted candidates will be required to submit copies of degree certificates officially certified by the Issuing Authority.

Application Submission Confirmation

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that their application has successfully been submitted. Upon successful submission, the candidate will receive an automated confirmation e-mail.

(b) Thirty (30) places for the Master's degree programme in Human Resource Management (HRM).

An analysis of the world's most admired companies shows that the most important success factor and at the same time one of the few ways that Organizations can gain long-term, sustainable competitive advantage, is the effective acquisition and management of their people. Therefore, the Department of Business and Public Administration of the University of Cyprus provides an innovative Master's Programme in Human Resource Management (MSc in HRM). The MSc in HRM offers in-depth knowledge and skills on how to achieve such an advantage through people in a variety of organizational settings and is suitable for both graduates of HR related bachelor studies as well as graduates from other fields.

The Postgraduate Programme in Human Resource Management offers students the opportunity to learn from leading HRM and organizational experts within Europe and beyond and to apply their knowledge in real-world settings. Furthermore, it provides them with knowledge in practical aspects of HR through various workshops that will enhance their understanding from an HR practitioner perspective. In addition, it provides valuable knowledge and skills to help advance students' career as well as access to a strong human resource management network in Cyprus and abroad. Finally, it enables students to strengthen their analytical, team and communication skills and increase their understanding on business ethics and social responsibility.

The programme is offered by the departments of 1) Computer Science, 2) Mathematics and Statistics and 3) Business and Public Administration in English. The programme's duration is 1.5 years (90 ECTS).

The minimum qualifications required in order to apply, are:

- A recognized University Degree in a related field (Statistics, Computer Science, Mathematics, Engineering, Economics, Business, Physics) from an accredited Institution with a GPA of at least 6.5/10. If the degree is not yet available during the application process, the student must submit it before the start of classes in September.
- Proof of very good knowledge of the English language (test results and/or certificates obtained; the certificates that demonstrate proficiency in English can be found at the following Web site: https://www.ucy.ac.cy/graduateschool/en/admissions/admission-requirements). This is not necessary for applicants who received their degrees for programmes taught in English.

Additional academic criteria required in order to apply, are:

- Successful completion of courses in Probability, Statistics or Econometrics and fundamental Mathematics (e.g., basic calculus, linear algebra, etc).
- Successful completion of courses in Computer Science (e.g. programming principles in Python, R, etc).

Applications are evaluated by the Committee of the Postgraduate Programme, which proposes recommendations to the Councils of the respective Departments, which are responsible for the final approval of students admitted. Candidates are ranked according to the following scale: (1): not acceptable, (2): acceptable under certain conditions (conditional offer), (3): acceptable.

A number of scholarships will be offered to the best full-time candidates admitted in the graduate programme. The scholarships will be for one semester and may be renewed, based on student's performance.

Twenty (20) places for the MSc Artificial Intelligence. The delivery of this master's programme is co-funded by the European Commission (Connecting Europe Facility (CEF) — Telecommunications Sector) under the MAI4CAREU project (Master Programmes in Artificial Intelligence 4 Careers in Europe). Europe's initiative to fund new master's programmes in Artificial Intelligence demonstrates the importance Europe attaches to recent developments in this area, in providing solutions to global problems related to every aspect of human life, contributing to growth and competitiveness. The programme's collaboration network includes four European Universities (University of Cyprus, University of Bologna, Technical University of Dresden, and University of Ruse Angel Kanchev), the CYENS Centre of Excellence and four high-tech SMEs (Nodes & Links Labs, 3AeHealth LTD, INJENIA SRL, MLPS AD). The strong links with industry provide significant added value to the educational experience.

The programme is offered in English only and lasts 1.5 years (90-102 ECTS credits), namely three academic semesters and an optional summer period during which students have the opportunity to participate in the AI Camp teaming with students from the other collaborating universities and/or to pursue an internship.

The minimum qualifications required to apply are:

- University degree in pure/applied sciences (computer science, mathematics, etc.) or engineering (computer engineering, biomedical engineering) or cognitive science, with a minimum degree of 6.5/10.
 If the qualification is not available at the time of the application, it must be presented before the beginning of the programme in September.
- Basic knowledge of artificial intelligence and computer programming acquired through previous studies or work experience.
- Proof of very good knowledge of English (examination results and/or certificates). The accepted certificates supporting the very good knowledge of English can be found on the page: https://www.ucy.ac.cy/graduateschool/el/admissions/admission-requirements). This is not necessary for applicants who have obtained degrees in an English-language university programme.

Applications will be evaluated by the Programme Steering Committee in cooperation with the Committee for Postgraduate Studies of the Department of Computer Science, and the recommendations will be submitted to the Department Council, which is responsible for the final approval of the students admitted. Candidates shall be ranked according to the following scale: (1): not acceptable, (2): conditionally accepted, (3): accepted.

Several scholarships covering half the amount of the full tuition fees will be offered based on academic and/or socio-economic criteria.

Fifty six (56) places are available for the postgraduate programme which leads to obtaining a Master's or a PhD degree. The places are distributed as follows:

- (a) Thirty six (36) places for the Postgraduate Programme in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering:
 - > Eight (8) places at a MSc level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering
 - > Eight (8) places at a PhD level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering
 - > Twenty (20) places at MEng level in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering

Research Areas

- Biomedical Engineering
- Computational Mechanics of Solid and Fluids
- Design, Manufacturing, Automation and Robotics
- Energy Systems
- Mechanical Systems Modelling and Controls
- Micro- and Nano-Technology
- (b) Ten (10) places for the postgraduate Programme in Materials Science and Technology
 - Five (5) places at a MSc in Advanced Materials and Nanotechnology
 - Five (5) places at a PhD level in Advanced Materials and Nanotechnology
- (c) Ten (10) places for the Joint Postgraduate Programme of the Faculty of Engineering at Master (M.Eng, MSc) level in "Energy Technologies and Sustainable Design" which are distributed as follows:
 - > Ten (10) places at the Master's level

You should also state, on this section whether you are interested in working as a Teaching Assistant during the first year of your graduate study.

All the programmes will be offered in English language.
