

Agreement of Cooperation between the University of Cyprus and Haigazian University, Lebanon

On September 15, 2020, the University of Cyprus, represented by its Rector Professor Tasos Christofides, and the Haigazian University, Lebanon, represented by its President Rev. Dr. Paul Haidostian, signed an Agreement of Cooperation.

The Agreement of Cooperation, which sets the context for collaboration in a number of areas of common interest, provides for the co-organisation of conferences and seminars, the joint participation in research programmes and academic activities and the exchange of students and staff.

Both the Rector of the University of Cyprus and the President of the Haigazian University expressed their certainty that the Agreement will act as a milestone for the cooperation between the Parties.

