

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

MASTER OF LAWS (LLM) PROGRAMME

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2025

The Faculty of Law invites applications for thirty-three (33) places for the postgraduate programme leading to a Master of Laws (LL.M) with a start date in September 2024.

The duration of studies is 3 academic semesters. The programme is completed in two stages. During the first two semesters students attend four modules (15 ECTS each), while the third semester is devoted to the writing of a Master thesis (30 ECTS).

All students are required to take the core module 'Fundamental Principles of EU Law'. In addition, students are requested to choose one of the two streams of the programme (Stream A. «Criminal Justice and Human Rights», Stream B. «European Commercial Law»). This means that they have to take three modules of their chosen stream and write a Master thesis on one of the three modules of that stream. This will lead to specialisation of the LLM degree they will obtain. The language of instruction is Greek. Students must specify in their application which stream they will follow.

Owing to unforeseeable circumstances, which rendered necessary the re-organisation of the teaching duties of the Faculty staff, the Stream European Public Law will not be offered in the academic year 2024-2025.

Admission criteria:

- Candidates for the LLM programme must hold a Law degree from a recognized University.
- Graduates of the Law Faculty of the University of Cyprus must have a GPA of at least 7.0/10; graduates of Greek Universities must have a GPA of at least 6.5/10; graduates of UK Universities at least second-class honors (at least 2.2 classification). Similar GPA is required for graduates of other Universities (for example, at least 3.3 on a 4.0 scale). Exceptionally, by decision of the Departmental Board, graduates with a lower GPA and remarkable professional performance may be admitted at a percentage not exceeding 10 per cent of selected candidates.
- Very good command of English is necessary for the successful completion of the programme. Knowledge of a second or third European language is taken into consideration.

Submission of applications:

Applications can be submitted electronically using the online application system of the UCY by Tuesday 2nd April 2024, until 12 noon.

The applications should include the following:

1. A Curriculum Vitae.
2. Certified copies of University degrees or confirmation of graduation (Admitted candidates will need to submit the certified degrees along with the acceptance of the offer to the University of Cyprus and before their registration).
3. Copy of English language certificate or evidence of linguistic skill level. The same applies to proof of knowledge of other foreign languages.
4. Copies of Transcripts (with a detailed record of grades) for all programmes of study (undergraduate and postgraduate if applicable).
5. A brief statement of personal goals and research interests (in English or Greek and up to 2 pages), which shall also indicate the candidate's preference for one of the two streams. The indication of preference is mandatory.
6. The names and e-mails of at least two (2) academic referees familiar with the candidate and his/her academic performance, who will provide letters of recommendations. However, one letter of recommendation could be provided by an employer or supervisor who is familiar with the candidate's work and personality. The referees will receive a relevant e-mail requesting submission of the reference letter through the UCY online application system. The Department may request additional confidential information from referees.
