Spring 2022

The Centre for Medieval Literature (CML) is a Centre of Excellence (Danish National Research Foundation). It is based at the History Department of the University of Southern Denmark (Odense) and the Department of English and Related Literature at the University of York.

The CML works to establish theoretical models for the study of medieval literature on a European scale, set within wider Afro-Eurasian contexts, from c. 500 CE to c. 1500 CE. Our research is interdisciplinary and multilingual, combining literary study with history, history of art, history of science, and other disciplines.
